Leading Texas Stallion Valid Expectations Retired from Stud Duty

Valid Expectations, Texas' all-time leading sire, has been retired from active stud duty after a brilliant career. The 20-year-old son of Valid Appeal has been relocated from William S. Farish's Lane's End Texas near Hempstead to Greg Goodman's Mt. Brilliant Farm in Kentucky. Goodman bought out the partnership group that included Farish, Lee and Bob Ackerley, Joe Archer and Robert McNair. Earlier this year, Valid Expectations passed 1983 Kentucky Derby winner Sunny's Halo as the state's all-time leading stallion by progeny earnings.

"You can't put into words what he did," said Lane's End Texas Farm Manager Danny Shifflett, who has been with Valid Expectations since the stallion came to Texas in 2000 at what was then called Huisache Farm. "Almost everybody involved, whether they bred to him or owned him, experienced some type of success and joy. The horse was phenomenal."

Valid Expectations was the first "big" horse for two-time Eclipse Award-winning trainer Steve Asmussen, who conditioned the sprinter for Texas brothers Lee and Bob Ackerley through a career in which he won 12 of 27 starts with seven stakes wins and earnings of $596,092.

From 13 crops to race, Valid Expectations has sired the earners of $30.3 million with 43 stakes winners and 41 stakes-placed horses. His leading runners include millionaire Saratoga County,

Valid Expectations

a three-time graded stakes winner in the United States who also captured the Group 1 Dubai Golden Shaheen in the United Arab Emirates, Super Derby (G2) winner and successful sire The Daddy, and Texas Horse of the Year Leaving on my Mind.

Valid Expectations has topped the Texas sire list for virtually his entire tenure in the Lone Star State after standing his first two seasons in Florida. He topped the North American freshman sire list in 2001 by both winners (27) and progeny earnings ($1,397,911).

The November/December issue of Southern Racehorse will include a look back at Valid Expectations and his impact on the Texas breeding program.

First Stakes Winner for Oklahoma Stallion Mr. Nightlinger

Mr. Nightlinger was represented by his first stakes winner on October 18 at Remington Park as his gelded son Lingerlonger produced a dominating eight-length victory in the $85,500 Oklahoma Classics Juvenile Stakes. Bred and owned by Hal Browning and David Faulkner, the Oklahoma-bred earned $51,300 for the win to extend Mr. Nightlinger's advantage as the leading freshman sire in the state.

Ridden by Curtis Kimes and trained by Kari Craddock, Lingerlonger broke his maiden in his previous start with a 3 ¼-length victory against special weight foes at Remington. His earnings now stand at $72,111 after three starts.

"I watched Mr. Nightlinger race many times and he was faster than fast on dirt and grass," said co-owner Faulkner. "I've got the full-brother to this colt at home so we went right back to him. This makes it all worthwhile and you have to enjoy these wins when they come."

Mr. Nightliner, who stands at JEH Stallion

Station in Oklahoma, won 10 of 25 career starts with five stakes wins and six stakes placings. While most of his success came in turf sprints, the Indian Charlie stallion proved his versatility on the main track and ability to go around two turns with placings in the Grade 3 Lone Star Derby at 1 ¼ miles and the Pomona Derby at 1 ⅛ miles.

Mr. Nightliner, who stands as property of Martin Racing Stable LLC and Carl Moore Mgmt. LLC, has four winners to date from his first crop to hit the track.

Horse Racing Show to Debut on KCLW Radio in Texas

Fred Taylor of Mojo Racing Partners is launching a horse racing radio show called "The Starting Gate" that will air on KCLW (900 AM) in Hamilton, Texas. The bi-weekly radio program will be dedicated to providing listeners with unique perspectives about the horse racing ownership experience.

Starting November 2, Mojo will produce shows that will be on the air the first and third Saturdays of each month. Links to each broadcast will be available on the Mojo Racing Partners website, and the shows will eventually be converted to podcasts.

The Starting Gate, hosted by Taylor, will take listeners out to the farms, sales companies and racetracks to introduce these perspectives. Every fourth show will feature an interview with "the experts" who breed, sell, train and come up with the strategies for horse racing success.

"Public interest in our beloved sport is waning, and I've created The Starting Gate to help introduce new people to the thrills of ownership with the hope they will become passionate about horse racing and possibly future participants/clients," said Taylor about the program. "My overall goal is to give our listeners the opportunity to experience the less publicized, but more-intriguing, areas of our fantastic sport that only owners typically see and do."

For more information, visit The Starting Gate page of the Mojo Racing Partners website.

Bind Retired to Red River Farms in Louisiana

Claiborne Farm and Adele Dilschneider's Bind, a 5-year-old son of top sire Pulpit, will enter stud in 2014 at Jay Adcock's Red River Farms in Coushatta, Louisiana. He will stand for $1,500 as property of Claiborne, Dilschneider and Nathan Granger.

A winner at three, four, and five, Bind finished on the board in seven of his eight career starts. Trained by Al Stall Jr., Bind initially captured the attention of horsemen when he earned a 105 Beyer Speed Figure winning his racing debut. That 9 1/2-length win at Fair Grounds with a six-furlong clocking of 1:08.80 also earned him the distinction of "TDN Rising Star" for his performance. In addition to his three six-furlong wins at Fair Grounds, Bind placed in the Sam Houston Sprint Cup Stakes and finished fourth in the Commonwealth Stakes (G3). He retired with lifetime earnings of $108,335, three wins, two seconds and a third.

"Bind ran one of the best 'Rag' numbers (1 1/2) I've ever seen for a first-time starter," said trainer Stall. "We felt the sky was the limit with him, and he also is one of the most physically attractive horses I have ever trained."

Bind is by leading sire and sire of sires Pulpit, whose record at stud boasts 70 SWs (42 Graded), including SWs and top sires Stroll, Tapit, and Sky Mesa. Bred by Claiborne, he is out of the Unbridled mare Check and is bred on the same cross as Tapit. Bind is the full brother to the promising 2-year-old Quilt, who was second by a head in a maiden special weight at Saratoga this summer, and he is also a half-brother to Hakama, who placed in the Illinois Derby (G3).

Oklahoma Stallion Chitoz Gets First Winner

Freshman Oklahoma stallion Chitoz was represented by his first winner on October 11 at Remington Park when Lets Suppoze got up to win a maiden claiming event. The Texas-bred gelding was ridden by Belen Quinonez for trainer Francisco Bravo. Lets Suppoze, who trailed by more than 15 lengths early on, runs for Mike Grossman, who bred the 2-year-old in the name of his Eureka Thoroughbred Farm. Chitoz stands as property of Grossman at Bravo's River Oaks Farms Inc. in Sulphur, Oklahoma.

Lets Suppoze, who finished off the board in his first two starts in sprints, apparently enjoyed the added distance around two turns. The gelding out of the Bingalong mare Bin Sweet earned $7,896 for the win.

Chitoz, a son of Forest Wildcat out of a winning Affirmed mare, equaled a 5 1/2-furlong turf course record at Monmouth Park with a stakes victory as a 3-year-old, and he proved his stamina with a runner-up finish in the 1 1/16-mile Kentucky Cup Juvenile Stakes (G3) as a 2-year-old. The versatile Chitoz broke his maiden going a mile on the main track at Monmouth by 10 1/4 lengths and won a two-turn allowance at Churchill Downs on the turf. All told, he banked $160,931 on the track.

Equine Sales Open Yearling and Mixed Sale Set for October 28

Fresh off its record-breaking Consignor Select Yearling Sale, Equine Sales Company has announced that the catalog is now online for its Open Yearling and Mixed Sale. The auction is set for October 28 beginning at 12 noon at the Equine Sales Thoroughbred Auction Facility in Opelousas, Louisiana.

The catalog comprises 180 head, plus 19 supplements, representing some of the top bloodlines from Louisiana, Texas and Kentucky breeders, as well as from those around the country. The catalog includes 57 yearlings, 31 weanlings, 23 horses of racing age and 69 broodmares, with many in foal to prominent sires.

"I feel we have a good balance of quality offerings, and there should be something for everyone," said Sales Director Foster Bridewell.

Equine Sales Company, which held its inaugural yearling sale last year, is already seeing the benefits of the new on-site sales barns and the modern sales facility, which is the newest in the south. The Consignor Select Yearling Sale in September posted an impressive average of $12,987 with a very low buy-back rate of 18%. That average was up 56% compared to the inaugural yearling sale, and the median of $9,000 represented a massive jump of 114%. The $140,000 sale-topper was a Louisiana-bred colt by Eskendereya.

Equine Sales also announced the dates for its inaugural 2-year-olds in training sale. The racing prospects will breeze on April 26, 2014, and head into the ring on April 28.

The online catalog for the Open Yearling and Mixed Sale is now available for download or in an interactive version at www.equine-sales.com. To request a printed catalog, contact Equine Sales at (337) 678-3024.

Affirmatif Relocated to Caines Stallion Station in Oklahoma

Oklahoma stallion Affirmatif, a stakes-winning son of Unbridled's Song, has been relocated to stand the 2014 breeding season at Caines Stallion Station near Wynnewood, Oklahoma. Affirmatif formerly stood at Diamond G Ranch near Edmond. His stud fee is set at $1,000, and to welcome him to the farm Caines Stallion Station is offered a complimentary season for every paid season (both to be used in 2014).

Affirmatif hit the board in 10 of 13 career starts with a victory in the Woodlawn Stakes going a mile on the Pimlico turf course.

He placed in three stakes, including the Hill Prince Stakes (G3) at a mile on the main track at Belmont Park. All told, he banked $187,798 with a record of 13-3-6-1.

Affirmatif's female family includes champions Rubiano, Relaunch, Summer Bird and top sire Tapit, and he is a half brother to Grade 3-placed and fellow Oklahoma stallion Chitoz.

Affirmatif's first foals are yearlings of this year. For more information, go to www.cainesstallionstation.com.

Record Price Tops Breeders Sales Company of Louisiana Auction

A chestnut colt by Awesome Again fetched $210,000 to top the Breeders Sales Company of Louisiana yearling auction in West Monroe on September 24, setting a new record for the highest price ever paid at the sale. Bred by Keith and Ginger Myers' Coteau Grove Farms LLC and consigned by Pelican State Thoroughbreds, agent, the April 17 foal sold to Maurice and Evelyn Benoit's Brittlyn Stables LLC, the owners of four-time Louisiana Horse of the Year Star Guitar.

In addition to a record-breaking sale-topper, the auction recorded strong increases compared to last year's sale. A total of 202 yearlings were cataloged and produced gross receipts of $2,000,300.

The average sale price was $14,288 with a median of $7,500 from 140 sold, 17 outs and 45 buy-backs. Those figures represent significant gains from last year, when the sale reported gross receipts of $1,119,400 with an average of $9,906 and a median of $4,500 with 113 of 155 offered being sold.

The sale topper's dam, the Empire Maker mare Clear Sailing, was purchased by Coteau Grove from the Overbrook Farm dispersal as a $255,000 session-topper at the 2009 Keeneland November breeding stock sale. Clear Sailing is out of the Old Trieste mare Steady Course, who is a half sister to Grade 2 winner and former Overbrook sire Jump Start.

Clear Sailing made one start for Overbrook before the sale, and she went on to win four times in seven starts for Coteau Grove, including the Pelleteri Stakes at Fair Grounds. After suffering a career-ending injury in 2010, she was retired to Coteau Grove and bred to Awesome Again in early 2011. The sale-topping colt is her first foal.

A total of 202 yearlings were cataloged and produced gross receipts of $2,000,300.

The average sale price was $14,288 with a median of $7,500 from 140 sold, 17 outs and 45 buy-backs.

"This sale is an indication of the popularity of Louisiana-breds and a credit to our breeders," said Roger Heitzmann, secretary/treasurer for the LTBA and executive director for the sale. "We had a big audience at the sale and online through our webcast. The sales staff did a great job organizing and running the sale. This has been one of our best sales."

The high-selling filly at the sale was a daughter of Good and Tough out of the stakes-winning and Grade 3-placed Green Alligator mare May Gator. The February foal went to Coteau Grove Farms from the consignment of Brown's Thoroughbred Farm.

Also of note, Murray Valene's Valene Farms picked up a Half Ours filly, who is a half sister to Grade 2 winner Designer Legs, for $45,000. At last year's sale, Valene nabbed Designer Legs, by Graeme Hall, for just $10,000. The filly has banked $189,000 in her four starts this year with her biggest win coming in the $200,000 Adirondack Stakes at Saratoga Race Course.

Clear Creek Stud, agent, topped all consignors with 36 sold for $513,500, and Brittlyn Stables topped the buyer list with two purchases for $245,500.
