Fasig-Tipton Texas Sale Records Big Gains, Texas-bred Worldventurer Sells for $150,000

The Fasig-Tipton Texas 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale on April 3 on the grounds of Lone Star Park concluded with significant increases across the board and a big price in the new Horse of Racing Age portion of the auction as Texas-bred multiple stakes winner Worldventurer sold for $150,000. All the important figures were up compared to last year, even without the inclusion of the three older horses at the end of the sale.

The average price increased nearly 20% to $23,564, the median jumped almost 43% to $20,000, buy-backs improved to 30.2% from 32.8% and the gross came in at $1,743,750, up from $1,575,100 for last year's larger catalog.

A 2-year-old filly by Kitten's Joy went for $130,000 as the highest-priced juvenile. The Kentucky-bred, consigned by Mike Neatherlin as agent for James Tolliver, is a full sister to Coolmore Lexington Stakes (G3) winner Derby Kitten and Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes (G2) runner-up William's Kitten. Named Ring Bit, the filly worked an eighth-mile in a co-fastest time of :10 1/5 and sold to Sallusto & Albina, agent.

Worldventurer, a gelded son of Valor Farm stallion Wimbledon, went to Bryan Anderson, agent. Bred by Clarence Scharbauer Jr. and sold for $14,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Texas Summer Yearling Sale, Worldventurer won three stakes and earned $207,932 for owner Wesley Melcher before going through the ring. The 3-year-old was also named last year's Texas Champion 2-Year-Old Colt/Gelding. Twin Oaks Training Center, agent, consigned Worldventurer.

Other regional stallions and horses also found success at the sale. In addition to being the sire of Worldventurer, Wimbledon also sired the highest-priced Texas-bred, hip #5. Consigned by Hebert Bloodstock, agent, and purchased for $32,000 as a private sale by Jerry Cate and Ela Racing Stable, the filly named Winehouse is a half sister to three stakes horses. Texas stallion Special Rate, who stands at Key Ranch near Salado, had progeny sell for $25,000, $24,000 and $15,000 among five that went through the ring. All-time leading Texas stallion Valid Expectations, who stands at Lane's End Texas near Hempstead, had a filly sell for $20,000.

Among horses from the Sooner State, an Oklahoma-bred filly by Oklahoma stallion Podium sold for $22,000 from the consignment of Robert Brewer, agent, to buyer Spaeth Mfg. and Machine Shop Inc. Podium stands at Caines Stallion Station near Wynnewood. Another Oklahoma-bred by an Oklahoma stallion, a filly from the first crop of Mighty Acres stallion The Visualiser, sold for $20,000.

Bryan Anderson was the leading buyer with two head for $210,000, and Twin Oaks Training Center topped the consignor list with 14 sold for $416,000.

Don't Get Mad

Leading Oklahoma Stallion Don't Get Mad Dies

Don't Get Mad, one of Oklahoma's leading sires since moving to Dr. Robert Zoellner's Rockin' Z Ranch in Beggs in 2011, passed away in mid-April after an accident in the breeding shed.

The son of Stephen Got Even earned $793,835 in 13 career starts with victories in the Indiana Derby (G2), Northern Dancer Breeders' Cup Stakes (G3) and Derby Trial. He also finished fourth in both the Kentucky Derby (G1) and Travers Stakes (G1).

As a stallion, Don't Get Mad has three crops to race with progeny earnings of $2.75 million. His leading earner is three-time stakes winner Populist Politics, whose bankroll stands at $491,416. The Louisiana-bred, who was named that state's champion 3-year-old colt, finished third in the 2011 Super Derby (G2).

Foreign Sultress Upsets WRD Classic Distaff Sprint

Scattered Acres LLC's Foreign Sultress, a 4-year-old filly by Foreign Policy, scored a 10-1 upset in the $55,000 Cherokee Casino Will Rogers Downs Classic Distaff Sprint Stakes for Oklahoma-breds on April 8 at the Claremore track. Benny Landeros rode for trainer Andy Gladd. She clocked six furlongs in 1:11.43 and won by 2 ¼ lengths.

Bred by Bob and Paulette Pogue out of the Dixie Brass mare Sultress of Swing, Foreign Sultress has compiled a record of 14-5-3-1 with earnings of $100,494 while racing exclusively in Oklahoma. She broke her maiden at Will Rogers last year and then picked up a win at Fair Meadows before winning twice more at Remington Park. She kicked off her 4-year-old season with a runner-up effort in a Will Rogers allowance race and then earned her first career stakes win in the Distaff Sprint.

Richter Family Trust's homebred Jazzin' Okie, a daughter of Candy Ride (Arg) who won last year's Wilma Mankiller Memorial Stakes at Will Rogers, got up to finish second as the favorite with Jose Medina up for trainer Kenneth Nolen.

Diamond Disco, a homebred running for 7 Cedars Farm, closed to take third with Garrett Steinberg aboard for conditioner Clinton Stuart. The filly is by Oklahoma stallion Diamond, a son of Mr. Prospector who stands at Oklahoma Equine.

Johnny Whip Takes TRAO Classic Sprint

George W. Straw Jr.'s Johnny Whip earned his first career stakes victory on April 9 in the $55,000 TRAO Classic Sprint Stakes for Oklahoma-bred colts and geldings. Ridden by Benny Landeros and trained by Jody Pruitt, the 4-year-old gelding by Stephen Got Even scored by two lengths and traveled six furlongs in 1:10.08.

Johnny Whip, who was bred by Robert Zoellner of Rockin' Z Ranch out of the Seeking the Gold mare Paradisa, has been remarkably consistent throughout his career with a record of 19-7-4-3 and earnings of $148,006. The gelding finished third in last year's Jim Thorpe and Tishomingo Stakes at Remington Park.

Okie Ride, the 2-5 favorite, finished second for breeder/owner Richter Family Trust. The Candy Ride (Arg) gelding has earned nearly $400,000 in his career with five stakes victories, including the Silver Goblin and Oklahoma Classics Sprint last year. Luis Quinonez rode the 6-year-old for trainer Kenneth Nolen.

Keith Hooker and Lyn Aldridge's Ransom Roberto, by Rojo Dinero, closed to take third for trainer Wilson Brown and jockey Miguel Perez.

Lookinforchange Gives Trainer Jerry Donaldson a Stakes Double at Will Rogers

Trainer Jerry Donaldson sent out his second stakes winner in as many days on April 24 as Lookinforchange rolled to a 4 ¼-length victory in the $50,000 Wilma Mankiller Memorial Stakes at Will Rogers Downs. On April 23, Donaldson saddled Humble Smarty to win the Clem McSpadden Memorial Route 66 Stakes at the track in Claremore, Oklahoma.

Bred in Kentucky by Lila McKinnis and Rod Edgmon and owned by Margaux Farm LLC and Vinery LTD, Lookinforchange stopped the timer at 1:10.82 for six furlongs under jockey Benny Landeros. This marked the first career stakes win for the daughter of Gilded Time, who now has a record of 24-7-3-3 with earnings of $205,914.

Coady Photography

Clark Brewster's Givhans Lookinforchange UG&FD Ferry, who shipped in from Fair Grounds for trainer Steve Margolis, finished a clear second. Jerry Namy's Storm's Promise, also from Fair Grounds, took third.

Lasting Bubbles Scores in JEH Stallion Stakes

Lasting Bubbles, bred and owned by Judy Peek and trained by Ken Peek, won the 17th running of the $50,000 JEH Stallion Station Stakes on April 13 at Lone Star Park.

With Lindey Wade aboard, the 5-year-old mare by Pulling Punches stalked the pace on the outside behind favorite Cowgirl N Up, posting fractions of :22.37 and :45.20.

Lasting Bubbles, with strong urging and under the whip, took the lead with a furlong to go and powered away to win the contest for Texas-bred fillies and mares by 5 ½ lengths. Cowgirl N Up held on for the place and it was another 3 ½ lengths back to third-place finisher Im a Bear. The final time for the 6 1/2-furlong sprint was 1:16.32.

Reed Palmer Photography

Lasting Bubbles

“She put me in a good position,” said jockey Lindey Wade. “She ran the lights out.”

Lasting Bubbles earned $30,000 for her win in the JEH Stallion Station Stakes, increasing her lifetime earnings to $111,002. It was her fourth win from 11 starts, and she earned a 96 Beyer Speed Figure for the win. For those who invested, she returned $6.20, $2.80 and $2.60.

Runner-up Cowgirl N Up, a daughter of Valor Farm stallion My Golden Song owned by Caroline Dodwell, returned $2.60, $2.40, and Im a Bear, a filly by Lane’s End Texas stallion Touch Tone owned by Tom Durant, paid $3.60 for show.

Triumph and Song Romps in Premiere Stakes to Open Lone Star Meet

Victoria Ashford’s Triumph and Song made a smooth transition from allowance to stakes company in the $50,000 Premiere Stakes for Texas-breds on April 11, opening day of the Lone Star Park meet. The 4-year-old gelded son of Valor Farm stallion My Golden Song scored an easy wire-to-wire victory by 4 ¼ lengths and ran 6 ½ furlongs in a blistering 1:15.45 as the 3-10 favorite. Jamie Theriot rode for trainer Bret Calhoun, who indicated the Texas-bred would next head to Kentucky to take on stakes company there. Daily Racing Form reported that Triumph and Song earned an impressive Beyer Speed Figure of 99 for his effort.

Bred by Ashford and Dr. Troy Carmichael, Triumph and Song is out of the Hadif mare Coryphee. Although Coryphee only faced the starter five times in her career, the daughter of another Valor Farm stallion won twice with a second and third for earnings of $42,080.

Prior to winning his stakes debut in the Premiere, Triumph and Song had won two allowance/optional claiming races at Fair Grounds and is now a perfect three-for-three on the year. All told, the gelding has a record of 8-5-1-2 with a bankroll of $120,116. Triumph and Song is one of five stakes winners sired by My Golden Song, who recently surpassed $1 million in progeny earnings from his first two crops to race.

Paul Rigali Jr.’s Texas Air, a 5-year-old son of Texas City also making his stakes debut, got up for second at odds of 12-1. Multiple stakes winner Solar Charge, an Authenticate gelding running for H and H Ranch, took third.

Nine-year-old Humble Smarty Wins Clem McSpadden Stakes at Will Rogers

Like a fine wine that gets better with age, Brett Creighton's Humble Smarty scored a decisive 4 ½-length victory in the $51,000 Clem McSpadden Memorial Route 66 Stakes on April 23 at Will Rogers Downs in Claremore, Oklahoma. The 9-year-old Arkansas-bred gelding dashed six furlongs over a good track in 1:10.20 with Belen Quinonez aboard for trainer Jerry Donaldson.

Bred by James Danaher out of the Zignew mare Humble Danzig, the son of Mutakddim has now won 18 of 73 career starts with earnings of $536,883. The gelding is enjoying perhaps his best season yet this year as he has three wins and a second in five starts. Humble Smarty began his 2013 campaign with an allowance/optional claiming win at Oaklawn Park in his home state and then captured the $60,000 Nodouble Breeders' Stakes for Arkansas-breds. The veteran sprinter has earned $113,750 this year.

Texas-bred Solar Charge, a 6-year-old gelding by Authentic running for owner H and H Ranch and trainer Danny Pish, got up to finish second and pushed his career bankroll to $326,192.

Reed Palmer Photography

George Straw Jr.'s Oklahoma-bred Johnny Whip, who won the TRAO Classic Sprint Stakes at Will Rogers two weeks earlier, took third. Jody Pruitt trains the son of Stephen Got Even.

Master Rick Rules Grade 3 Texas Mile

Master Rick, running for Dallasite Richard Davis, used a four-wide move on the far turn and rallied to win the $200,000 Texas Mile Stakes (G3) on April 27 at Lone Star Park and record his first career graded stakes victory. Ridden by Ricardo Santana Jr. and trained by Steve Asmussen, the son of Master Command scored by 1 ¼ lengths in an evenly-matched field of six. The Florida-bred covered the course in 1:36.01 as the 5-2 second choice in a race with five horses sent off at odds between 5-2 and 4-1.

Master Rick, who was bred by English Ranch Farm, needed five tries before he broke his maiden at Oaklawn Park as a 3-year-old last March, but he followed that up with a victory in the $100,000 Northern Spur Stakes at the Arkansas track. He then took on some of the toughest horses in the country and hit the board in the Super Derby (G3) and Zia Park Derby. As a 4-year-old this season, he finished fourth in the Fifth Season Stakes and Essex Handicap at Oaklawn before winning an allowance/optional claiming event there. All told, Master Rick has compiled a record of 16-4-1-2 with earnings of $351,363.

"Absolutely the best!" said Davis after the race. "Obviously a mile is his distance, and that's where he's the strongest and we're gonna keep him there."

Favored Prayer for Relief, a millionaire who won three graded stakes as a 3-year-old and hit the board in four graded events as a 4-year-old last year in California, put in a good effort to take second and gave Asmussen a sweep of the exacta.

The 6-year-old gelding Good Lord, a veteran of 48 races who came in from Tampa Bay Downs, set the early pace and held on to finish third.
