TRAO and OQHRA Create Benevolence Account for Horsemen Impacted by Oklahoma Tornado

In a joint statement released by the Thoroughbred Racing Association of Oklahoma (TRAO) and the Oklahoma Quarter Horse Racing Association (OQHRA), the associations announced the creation of a benevolence account for horsemen impacted by the recent storms in the state.

Following is the joint statement:

Our thoughts and prayers go out to everyone in Oklahoma following this horrific event. There are many horsemen who have been affected by this tragedy and have lost everything they own. Celestial Acres, which rents out stalls to multiple trainers, took a direct hit along with the highly publicized damage at the Orr Family Farm.

Both horsemen's organizations, along with Remington Park in Oklahoma City, are working together in coordinating relief to horsemen that have been affected by the storm.

Both offices have been encouraged by the outpouring of support and offers for help from across the country; it truly displays "horsemen helping horsemen." Many of those horsemen have lost everything - horses, possessions, tack and equipment, and their homes. They have many needs that cannot be met by traditional social agencies.

The TRAO and the OQHRA will be jointly accepting donations for horsemen who were affected by this tragic event. All donations will be distributed directly to horsemen and their families that were affected by the storms in this area.

If you want to make a donation using a credit or debit card, please call OQHRA at (405) 216-0440. Checks should be made payable to either TRAO Benevolence Fund or OQHRA Benevolence Fund and put 2013 Tornado on the memo line.

Thoroughbred Athletes Inc. Selling T-Shirts to Benefit Horses Injured in Oklahoma Tornado

Guthrie, Oklahoma-based Thoroughbred Athletes Inc., a 501(c)3 nonprofit dedicated to retraining racehorses in new disciplines after their racing careers are over, is selling T-shirts with a custom design to raise money for horses injured in the May 20 tornado that ripped through portions of Newcastle, southwest Oklahoma City and Moore.

All profits from the sale of the T-shirts will be given to Equi-Center Veterinary Hospital in Norman. As of May 22, Equi-Center, which is owned by Dr. Michael Wiley, was caring for 25 horses injured in the May 20 tornado. Many of their equine patients will require long-term care for deep wounds, which means veterinary bills are quickly adding up.

"The May 20 tornado affected all of us deeply here in Oklahoma, including the horse community," said Lynn Sullivan, director of Thoroughbred Athletes. "Dr. Wiley and his staff have been working so hard to treat wounds and save the lives of these horses, and we really wanted to find a way to help them. After some thought, some of our volunteers came up with the idea to design a T-shirt to raise funds and show the crew at Equi-Center how grateful we are for all they're doing to help these tornado victims and their owners."

The T-shirt design features an outline of the state of Oklahoma and within it the outline of a horse and a heart, along with the date "5.20.13." Beneath this image are the words, "Oklahoma Strong."

T-shirts are $20 each and will be available for pickup at Red Earth Feed & Tack, located at 2301 E. I-44 Service Road in Oklahoma City, or they can be shipped for an additional $5 per shirt. Individuals can order T-shirts by sending money via PayPal to lynn@thoroughbred-athletes.com and including a preferred size and, if being shipped, a preferred address.

Thoroughbred Athletes helps transition Thoroughbred horses from off the track and into a new routine. Volunteers and trainers teach the horses to become dependable riding horses and also expose them to experiences they might not have had while racing, such as being turned out with other horses. Once rehabilitated and retrained, the horses are then put up for adoption and sent to new homes to begin new careers.

For more information about Thoroughbred Athletes, Inc., visit www.thoroughbred-athletes.com.

Sam Houston to Simulcast Races from Royal Ascot

Ascot Racecourse has a distinguished racing history in Great Britain dating back to 1711. Its signature offering is Royal Ascot, the annual racing event that will take place from June 18-22, and for the first time racing fans in Houston will be able to watch and wager on this prestigious equine festival.

Sam Houston Race Park has negotiated a contract with Royal Ascot to broadcast the races for each of the five days. The American champion Animal Kingdom is expected to run in the Queen Anne Stakes on Tuesday, June 18. Trained by Graham Motion, the 2011 Kentucky Derby winner became an international star with his victory in the $10 million Dubai World Cup at Meydan Racecourse on March 30.

From the Royal Procession that signals the opening of the Ascot season to the world's most accomplished Thoroughbreds and the unsurpassed fashion and display of millinery creations, Royal Ascot will be a wonderful addition to the full simulcast menu already in place at Sam Houston.

"Simulcasting is our primary focus until live racing returns on January 17," said Andréa Young, Sam Houston's president. "We have a loyal following and core group of simulcast fans who have expressed interest in international racing. It is our hope that we will attract European racing enthusiasts residing in Houston and many new fans as we showcase this exciting and historically prominent week of racing."

In addition to the televised racing action, Sam Houston Race Park will offer a special "Royal Ascot Brunch Menu" in the Jockey Club on Saturday, June 22. British specialties will be offered, notably banger sausage in puff pastry, English pork and beans, asparagus Chantilly, assorted breakfast dishes and desserts including scones and king's bread pudding with vanilla sauce. The price is $12.95.

Gates will open daily at 8:00 a.m. with the first Royal Ascot race set for 8:30 a.m. (CT). Admission is free at Sam Houston during the non-live racing season.

For more information on Royal Ascot and the horses set to compete in the many Group 1 stakes, visit the Royal Ascot website. A complete list of simulcast tracks and stakes across the country is available at www.shrp.com.

Fair Meadows Kicks off 34-day Meet

Although the long-term future of live racing at Fair Meadows is still unclear, the Tulsa track kicked off its 34-day mixed meet on June 8 with a 12-race card that included five Thoroughbred events. The track is scheduled to run through August 2 with racing primarily offered on a Thursday through Sunday schedule.

The majority of races on the Fair Meadows stakes schedule are for Quarter Horses, but the track does have two Thoroughbred stakes. The six-furlong, $45,000-added Muscogee Creek Nation Stakes for Oklahoma-bred fillies and mares, 3-year-olds and up, is set for August 2, closing day. The $45,000 Route 66 Stakes for Oklahoma-bred 3-year-olds and up at 6 ½ furlongs is also set for August 2.

For more information and a condition book, go to www.fairmeadows.com.

Carter Sales Co.'s OKC Yearling Sale Adds Session for 2-Year-Olds and Horses of Racing Age

The Carter Sales Co.'s OKC Summer Yearling Sale is set for Monday, August 19, at the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds. The state's premier sale for Thoroughbred yearlings has added a session for 2-year-olds and horses of racing age.

"Our sale always coordinates with opening weekend at Remington, so it is a perfect time to present 2-year-olds and older horses that are ready to race," said Sale Manager Terri Carter.

Works for the 2-year-olds will be held at Remington and all horses in the sale will be radiographed and scoped.

"We start the weekend with racing opening on Friday and we usually get to see horses from the previous sale compete before the sale Monday afternoon," added Carter. "It is a great way to start the Thoroughbred season."

Entries for the sale are available at www.cartersalesco.com or by calling the office at (405) 288-6460.

Will Rogers Downs Posts Record-Breaking Wagering Results for Spring Meet

Cherokee Casino Will Rogers Downs recently completed the track's seventh annual spring Thoroughbred meet, and the results indicate another victorious effort in total wagering.

For the second consecutive year, Will Rogers Downs surpassed the $20-million mark in total handle. This year, a record $22.3 million was wagered, which is an increase of $1.75 million over the 2012 spring meet.

While 2013's meet fell short of the record number of $1-million days, with six this year compared to seven last year, Will Rogers had a year-over-year increase in all but a handful of daily totals during the 32-day meet that ran from March 4 to May 18.

"This year we shifted our race days from Saturday, Monday and Tuesday to Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, which proved to be a success," said Jesse Ullery, racing secretary for Cherokee Casino Will Rogers Downs. "Our races are broadcast worldwide, and the move from Saturday got us away from a lot of competition and increased our overall simulcast coverage, resulting in the boost in wagering."

Ullery also credits the quality of horses and competition that raced on the Claremore track this spring as another reason the numbers continue to climb each year.

Even with tougher fields, jockey Curtis Kimes proved to be the best for the fifth consecutive year, winning 48 of the 220 races he started. Bryan McNeil finished second with 44 wins in 157 starts.

Roger F. Engel finished atop the trainer standings for the second consecutive year. His horses won 31 of 89 races. Boyd Caster finished second with 21 wins from 97 starts.

The horse of the meet was Private Bounty, which is owned by Southern Okie Boys LLC. The 6-year-old son of Grand Rewards won three times and finished second once during the meet. Southern Okie Boys finished atop the owner standings with 13 wins and nine second-place finishes in 30 starts.

RACING NEWS

Master Rick Strikes Again in Texas Mile

Picking up his second graded stakes victory of the meet, Master Rick rolled to a one-length victory in the $300,000 Lone Star Park Handicap (G3) on Memorial Day. Owned by Richard L. Davis of Dallas and trained by Steve Asmussen, Master Rick stalked the pace in the 1 1/16-mile event and then seized control in the stretch before stopping the timer at 1:42.09 under Ricardo Santana Jr. The 4-year-old colt paid $4.20 to win as the favorite.

This marked the second big win at Lone Star for the Florida-bred son of Master Command after he took the $200,000 Texas Mile Stakes (G3) in April. He has now earned $317,750 in his two Lone Star wins, and his lifetime record stands at 17-5-1-2 with a bankroll of $547,113.

Zayat Stables LLC's Prayer for Relief, a three-time graded stakes-winning millionaire, finished well clear in second to give Asmussen a sweep of the exacta. The 5-year-old also ran second to Master Rick in the Texas Mile.

Master Rick

H and H Ranch's Formaggio, trained by Danny Pish, finished third, 14 1/2 lengths behind Prayer for Relief. J. Kirk and Judy Robison's Isn't He Clever finished fourth in the four-horse field that was depleted by the scratch of Battle Hardened.

MR. NIGHTLINGER FILLY DEBUTS WITH GOOD EFFORT AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

Date Posted: 5/2/2013

LOUISVILLE, KY—MAY 1, 2013—MR. NIGHTLINGER's first Thoroughbred starter, Miss Nightlinger, debuted today (Wednesday) at Churchill Downs in Louisville, Kentucky in a $45,000 Maiden Special Weight for 2-year-old fillies at 4 ½ furlongs.

Owned and bred by Martin Racing Stables, LLC, the chestnut filly drifted in at the start, split rivals on the turn then lodged a bid for the place position. She earned $9,000 for the second place effort.

W. Bret Calhoun saddled the Oklahoma-bred filly out of the Gilded Time mare Mascara Running. Rosie Napravnik rode her.

MR. NIGHTLINGER, a multiple grade 3 son of leading sire Indian Charlie, won or placed 18 of 25 starts, earning $644,403. He won the Aegon Turf Sprint S.(G3), Shakertown S.(G3), Arlington Sprint H., Jim McKay Turf Sprint S. and the Taylor's Special S.

Owned by Carl Moore Management LLC and Martin Racing Stable, LLC, MR. NIGHTLINGER stands at JEH Stallion Station's Oklahoma Division near Wynnewood. His 2013 fee is $1,500.

Remington Announces Thoroughbred Stakes Schedule

Remington Park's 25th anniversary rolls on in 2013 with the Oklahoma Derby, returned to graded status this season, leading the Thoroughbred season stakes schedule.

The Remington Park Thoroughbred season runs from Friday, August 16, through Sunday, December 15, and includes a 32-stakes race schedule worth nearly $3.4 million. The Grade 3, $400,000 Oklahoma Derby is the top event of the season and leads a special Sunday, September 29, program worth well over $1 million in purses. The Oklahoma Derby Day card will also include the $200,000 Remington Park Oaks, $150,000 Remington Park Sprint Cup, $100,000 Remington Green Stakes and the first leg of the Remington Park 2-year-old stakes race triple, the $75,000 Kip Deville Stakes.

The Oklahoma Derby regains a Grade 3 ranking this year for the first time since 2004. Contested at 1 1/8 miles, this year marks the 25th running of the event, first won by Clever Trevor in 1989. Politically-correct scored the Oklahoma Derby in 2012.

The Remington Park season closes with 2-year-olds featured on Sunday, December 15. The $250,000 Springboard Mile is the top stakes offering for the freshmen runners. The Springboard caps the 2-year-old stakes racing triple that begins with the Kip Deville at six furlongs in September. The $100,000 Clever Trevor at seven furlongs on November 8 is next, then the Springboard as the finale. Texas Bling captured the 2012 Springboard at outlandish odds of 128-1.

A new Remington Park stakes event will debut on the final day of the season. The $100,000 Trapeze will be run for the first time, featuring 2-year-old fillies at one mile.

The Remington Park turf course will be utilized extensively while in its prime with eight stakes races. The $100,000 Remington Green Stakes on the Oklahoma Derby undercard is the top open company turf race of the season.

The Remington Park stakes slate begins with a pair of events on the second night of the season. The $175,000 Governor's Cup at 1 1/8 miles and the $75,000 David M. Vance Sprint at six furlongs will lead the card on Saturday, April 17.

The $1 million Oklahoma Classics, featuring eligible

Oklahoma-breds in eight divisional stakes races, will be run Friday, October 18. The $175,000 Oklahoma Classics Cup, at 1 1/16 miles, is the top event of the evening. The $145,000 Distaff is second in the Classics pecking order at 1 mile and 70 yards for older fillies and mares. A quartet of $130,000 races including the Turf, Distaff Turf, Sprint and Distaff Sprint are also featured. The 2-year-olds round out the divisional Classics competition in the $100,000 Juvenile and $100,000 Lassie, for males then females respectively.

Overall, 16 of the 32 events on the stakes schedule are worth a purse of at least $100,000.

The Remington Park season will feature a 7 p.m. (Central) post time for the August evening race cards.

The afternoon programs will begin at 1:30 p.m. including: Labor Day Monday, September 2; Oklahoma Derby Day, Sunday, September 29; Black Friday, November 29; and Springboard Mile Day, Sunday, December 15.

The first post for the Remington Park races on Breeders' Cup Saturday, November 2, will be earlier than the normal evening start. The beginning of that live program will be announced once the Breeders' Cup schedule has been set.
